Course Description

This course is designed to help inform, educate, entertain classroom teachers, school counselors, and other educational personnel gain strategies to understand how building engaged classrooms in a time of relentless change, there's only one thing that's certain: new challenges and opportunities will emerge that are virtually unimaginable today. How can we know what skills will be required to succeed?

Research shows, educational excellence relies more on the talent and engagement levels of the people within an individual school than on any other factor. If we lose student hearts and minds in middle school we lose their bodies in high school.

Participants will be challenged to honestly evaluate their own attitudes and teaching, and to change those if needed in order to teach so that all students succeed in their classrooms. We will assess goals, strategies and strengths of a school in order to respond to changing social conditions.

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Ardys Reverman is called Dr. Ardy by her peers and associates. Dr. Ardy has a Ph.D. in a very hot new field. Psycho-Neuro-Immunology (P.N.I.), and in the path of fellow PNI professionals such as Depok Chopra, is using her background as an author and speaker to influence audiences nation-wide. Before her work in P.N.I. she was an NLP specialist and before that a Learning Disability Specialist AND before that, a "mom" bothered by the varied learning styles of each of her children. Not too long ago, Dr. Ardy introduced the "Synergy Pals" as a method of understanding whole-brain thinking. We make a good learning fit with each other when we nurture natural talents. She presents humor with a message. She believes that influence, the capacity to shift a person's perceptions, emotions, and actions, is the single most important skill we can master to increase the quality of our lives as well as the lives of all those we have the privilege to touch. Dr. Ardy believes life produces extraordinary rewards for those who give in extraordinary ways. She challenges us to make a joint commitment today, to participate together with a new level of intensity and passion, a level that goes far beyond anything we've ever done before. She challenges us to begin the process of taking our lives to the next level. How? Welcome this power simply by helping each other in the spirit of service, with love and laughter.
